Sagewood Names Razdan to New Position

Sagewood names Razdan to new position

Sagewood, a Life Plan Community featuring resort-like amenities focused on independence and well-being, has named Gina Razdan director of assisted living – memory care at Sagewood's Acacia Health Center.

She brings more than 25 years of experience in various health care settings to Acacia Health Center at Sagewood. Razdan previously served as the assistant director of nursing and the director of assisted living and wellness at the Terraces of Phoenix.

"We are excited to have Gina join our team with her expertise," said Natalie Miko, administrator of Acacia Health Center. "Her knowledge of the senior care industry will ensure superb outcomes with residents."

Razdan became a registered nurse through Scottsdale Community College and earned her bachelor of science in nursing from Arizona State University. She also has her assisted living manager's license.

Beautifully-designed Five-Star rated Acacia Health Center features a social-interactive model offering top skilled nursing services, memory support and rehabilitative therapy for individuals who are seeking short- or long-term care. Desert Willow Assisted Living at Acacia Health Center offers 44 contemporary designed one- and two-bedroom apartment homes, setting the standard for new assisted living communities in the Valley.
